Vice Presidential Tide Will Sweep the Rough Rider Before the Convention.

HE DALLIES WITH THE TEMPTATION

Philadelphia, June 18.—Unless the concensus of opinion of the most experienced political observers in the country is awry the selection of a candidate for vice president virtually will have been made before today closes.

The key to the situation is held by Governor Theodore Roosevelt, of New York. He alone can unlock it, and it seems certain at this writing that McKinley and Roosevelt will be the slogan with which the republicans will appeal to the country in the approaching campaign.

And yet Governor Roosevelt will have to decide, and thus far he has not said the decisive word. His position is unique in any politics. He does not desire, personally, the nomination for vice president. The acknowledged leaders of the administration forces in the convention, down deep in the hearts, do not want him to take it. Their opposition is not personal to Roosevelt. Largely, it is because some of the administration leaders have other preferences. That is true of Mr. Hanna.

HANNA WANTS BLISS.

His personal choice is former Secretary Bliss, of New York. He made his choice without detracting in the least from the distinctive qualifications of other aspirants for vice presidential honors—notably Long, Dolliver and others.

Confronted by such a situation Governor Roosevelt's position is better imagined than described. Several weeks ago he said to the president that he would not, in any conceivable circumstances, be a candidate for vice president. He believed he might serve better the interests of the republican party by standing again for the governorship of New York. He believes that now. His position is unchanged, he says. Yet, in face of that fact, and in the face of the desire of a few, at least, of the well known administration leaders to nominate somebody else, the nomination seems to be forcing itself, by a curious combination of circumstances, upon the New York governor, whether he wants it or not, and whether the leaders want him to have it or not.

UP TO M'KINLEY.

The running of the tide towards Roosevelt can be stemmed only by one man—the president. The drift of sentiment always has been towards a New York man, because of the prevalent belief that a strong New York man was needed on the ticket.

This fact accounts for the rise of the Roosevelt stock yesterday. In wonderful degree McKinley is the dominant force of this assemblage of republicans. No considerable fraction of the delegates to the convention desires to do that which the president does not want done.

But the president is saying nothing.

The formidable proportions assumed by the Roosevelt boom—if so it may be termed—was the subject of earnest consideration by the prominent republican leaders who attended the dinner at the residence of Clement A. Griscom, just outside of Philadelphia last night. That dinner may become historic.

Only friends of the administration were present—only leaders of the administration forces. The platform was discussed and so was Roosevelt.

ROUGH RIDER FLIRTING.

From one who attended the dinner it is learned that there is a question among the friends of the president, who believe they have the entire convention situation well in hand, whether they will join Governor Roosevelt in an attempt to stem the stampede which started towards the New York rough rider executive yesterday. There is an apparent misunderstanding between Roosevelt and the leaders of the convention. A strong disposition was manifested in some quarters to suspect that he had been flirting with fate all along and that he has not been "Honest Injun" in statements that he does not desire the nomination. This belief, it was contended, did Governor Roosevelt injustice and it was said that when he and those who were inclined to oppose him got together the seeming difference soon would be resolved.

The chief difficulty encountered by those who would nominate some other man than Roosevelt is to find a satisfactory candidate upon whom all can agree and who will appeal to the delegates as a candidate who will add material strength to the ticket and be of presidential calibre in the unfortunate contingency that he should be called to the chair of the chief executive.

It is pointed out that Roosevelt is a vote-getter. Indeed, one of the strong arguments made to him by his admirers was that the campaign as a candidate for the vice presidency would afford him brilliant opportunity to display to the best advantage in the interests of his party the talents he possesses in so notable a degree as a political orator.

LONG RANGE POLITICS.

It is quite certain that long-range politics is being played in the game now proceeding in this staid Quaker city. It is indicated that Governor Roosevelt has aspirations to be the party's candidate for the presidency in 1904. Those who are pressing his candidacy for the vice presidency now have told him that, in the event of his making a great campaign on the stump this year, the credit for victory, if victory again should come to the republicans, largely would be his and thus he would be in strong position to appeal to the party for the presidential nomination.

Even if Mr. Bliss finally should consent to become a candidate—and a strong intimation is given that, in certain circumstances, he could be induced to stand—it is questionable whether to nominate him over the heads of the leaders of the New York republicans would be desirable policy.

One of the distinguished participants in the conference and dinner at Mr. Griscom's last night, when asked today whether an effort would be made to stem the stampede towards Roosevelt begun Sunday, replied:

"With whom would you stem it? You cannot defeat something with nothing. Governor Roosevelt's candidacy is something tangible. It no longer can be reckoned with as an ephemeral thing."

In a nut shell that is the situation as it is regarded by the best political minds in attendance upon the convention.

WOULD NOT UPSET BALLOT.

It is intimated, but the intimation lacks even the tacit confirmation of Governor Roosevelt himself, that he will rise to a question of personal privilege in the convention and either withdraw his name unconditionally or state his reasons for not desiring the nomination. That he will decline the nomination, if once it should be made, nobody believes. In fact, he said that no man, in such circumstances, could refuse to obey the party's mandate and live in the hope of a political future.

The intimation, it may be said, originated with friends of Representative Dolliver, the magnetic orator of Iowa, who made so strong a bid for the vice-presidential nomination.

In connection with the Sunday stampede for Roosevelt, some signed statements are published today which indicate that it has developed considerable feeling.

General Grosvenor, the distinguished Ohioan, who generally is regarded as the mouthpiece of the administration on the floor of the house of representatives and is the father of the Dolliver boom, among other things says:

"There are rumors to the effect that because the administration is not anxious for the nomination of Governor Roosevelt certain persons, feeling some grievance against the administration, are organizing, or attempting to organize, to force Roosevelt on the ticket. That this can be done successfully without the consent and connivance of Roosevelt no man believes.

HINTS AT PLATT'S PLOT.

"That Roosevelt in this way is playing the part which involves duplicity nobody is heard to assert. That there is a deep purpose to drive Roosevelt from the campaign for governor in New York everybody knows. It may be that those of us

THE HURRAH WORK BEGINS

Philadelphia, June 18.—From a spectacular standpoint the convention began today. Over night the city blossomed like a flower garden. Bright skies smiled and a cool breeze instilled life and animation into the constantly swelling crowds. By every train they are pouring into the city and the town awoke to the strains of martial music as one of the marching clubs swung up the streets headed by a brass band playing as if its salvation depended upon the vigor put into the music. There has not been an hour since when the air was not filled with music and in which bands have not been parading in some quarter of the city, meeting and escorting the incoming delegates, clubs and distinguished visitors.

The leaders are being serenaded and the hotel corridors are jammed with seething, struggling crowds.

And the Roosevelt contagion is everywhere. The town is mad with delight at the prospect of his nomination. His badge is on every lapel. His name is on every lip. Nothing else is talked of. In the streets the newsboys dinned him in every ear and the fakirs with an endless supply of buttons shouted their wares in the sporting parlance of their kind, "McKinley, with Roosevelt for a place."

There was the biggest kind of a turnout of pretty women and almost without exception they were wearing the vignettes of the Empire state governor. So far as the populace is concerned it is taken for granted that the ticket is already nominated. The crowds will not listen to the suggestion that Roosevelt himself may upset the program. They say he had as well attempt to stay the torrent of Niagara.

In the hotels the delegates were busy holding state meetings, selecting committeemen and distributing badges. These latter are the handsomest seen in years. These consist of simple bronze medallions, suspended by ribbons from a bronze bar. On the medallions are the faces of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley superimposed upon each other, McKinley's likeness uppermost. The leaders are pow-wowing. The national committee held a final meeting to clear the decks for tomorrow's action and the convention officials are engaged in the distribution of the tickets and in adjusting the thousand and one dettails which remain to be attended to.

A NEW CANDIDATE.

The latest candidate for vice president is Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia.

Senator Scott was brought out by the Virginia delegation, which decided today to give him the support of her twenty votes in the convention. His name will be presented by Hon. J. Hampton Hoge, of Roanoke. The understanding is that West Virginia also will throw her twelve votes to Senator Scott, notwithstanding the fact that personally Mr. Scott has declared for his colleague, Senator Stephen B. Elkins.

A conference that was called in Senator Hanna's room this afternoon was still in session at 1:40.

Among those who participated were Senators Allison, Scott and Carter, Wayne MacVeagh and Secretary Dick.

The principal point under discussion was whether a fight should be made to prevent the nomination of Roosevelt. The policy of such a movement in the face of the demonstration which has developed, is questioned, and there is yet the great difficulty of finding a suitable candidate. Senator Hanna told the gentlemen that he thought Roosevelt ought to put an end to the matter. In the course of the conversation it developed that Mr. Hanna had been to Roosevelt some time ago and asked him to become a candidate. It is understood Roosevelt declared then he would not accept if nominated. Senator Hanna thinks Roosevelt should make that declaration public now in order to relieve the embarassment that has been caused by the strenuous effort being made to nominate him. Hanna acknowledged that there was no candidate in sight, but thought the matter might be settled in the convention if the Roosevelt stampede could be checked.

NOTHING ACCOMPLISHED.

At 2:30 the conference ended for the time, without any actual result being accomplished. Senator Hanna said:

"It seems to me that it would be just as well to wait until the delegates arrive and see what they want to do about the vice presidency."

He declared that the administration had no candidate. Personally he thought Secretary Long was in every way qualified for the position. The senator believes that if Governor Roosevelt will take the same decided stand now that he took a few weeks ago in Washington it will put a stop to the talk about him.

That stand is that he would not accept the nomination even if it was tendered to him.

After the conference with Governor Roosevelt Senator Hanna was asked, "Do you think Roosevelt wants the nomination?"

"Well, I don't know. He knows how he can stop it."

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The national republican committee has again decided to refer the principal contests in the state of Alabama to the convention, to be investigated by the committee on credentials. The leaders thought Saturday that they had succeeded in securing an agreement for the elimination of the officeholders and the seating of an equal number of men from the two delegations to make full representation from the state. Obstacles were, however, found in the way of this proceeding in a large part of the state, and when the matter was taken up in the committee today that body decided to put none of the delegates from the state at large or from the Third and Fifth districts on the temporary roll.

After an hour's sitting the committee concluded its ante-convention labors and adjourned sine die. Aside from the action taken upon the Alabama contest the most important matter which came before the committee at today's meeting was the resignation of Colonel Swords as sergeant-at-arms of the committee. The colonel has held this position for twelve years and there were general expressions of regret as well as of surprise over his determination to resign. A testimonial resolution introduced by Mr. Fessenden was unanimously adopted after eulogistic remarks by Messrs. Payne, Clayton, Manley, Thurston and Gibbs.

After resolutions of thanks to Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick, and also to the press of the country and the people of Philadelphia, the committee adjourned.

MOUNT SPIKED BOOMLET.

Philadelphia, June 18.—Harry C. New, of Indianapolis, candidate for national committeeman from his state, says that if Governor Mount had consented his name would have been presented for second place on the ticket. Failing to get this consent, the Indiana delegation had resolved to be governed by the sentiment of the convention, and he was of the opinion that the nomination of Roosevelt for vice president would be headed off.

DELEGATIONS ARRIVE.

Philadelphia, June 18.—The Hamilton club, of Chicago, 100 men, arrived and paraded throughout the principal streets on the way to their hotel. The club, which displayed several gorgeous banners, was neatly attired in black, with silk hats, each member carrying an umbrella. The club was headed by a band of seventy-five boys which they brought from Chicago.

The Marquette club, of Chicago, 250 strong, reached here early today and went through to Atlantic City. They will return in time for the parade tonight.

The Unconditional Republican club, of Albany, Col. George Addington, marshal, is en route to this city by boat and will arrive at 6 o'clock.

Three Washington, D. C., clubs arrived at the same hour. They were the Blaine Invincible Republican club, 125 men; the W. Calvin Chase Republican club, and the N. W. Parker Republican club, 150 men. Winfield Scott Hancock, marshal.

The New Jersey delegation opened headquarters today at the Lafayette hotel. The entire delegation is now here, with the exception of Governor Voorhees, who is on his way home from Europe and is expected to arrive either tomorrow or Wednesday. A conference will be held late this afternoon. Among the clubs which arrived during the afternoon were the Young Men's Republican Tariff club, of Pittsburg, 175 men; the Young Men's Blaine club, of Cincinnati, Capt. John Proctor, marshal; the Afro-American league, of Wilmington, Del., and the Lewis H. Scott Republican association, of Atlantic City, 75 members.

COLORED POLITICIANS THERE.

A meeting of colored men who are here as delegates or lookers-on was held today for the purpose of discussing the action taken by the national committee in refusing to place on the temporary roll delegates who represented the "regular republican organization" in some of the southern states. William Copeland, ex-member of the Ohio legislature, acted as chairman, and among the twenty-five or thirty present were J. A. Brown, W. H. Clifford, S. H. Thomas, of Ohio; Charles Anderson, of New York; Bruce Boyle, of New York, and Mr. Marshall, of Illinois.

Several speeches were made and the sentiment was in favor of sustaining the position of National Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick regarding the matter, and it was resolved to bring to bear all the pressure possible upon the committee on credentials to induce them to reverse the action of the committee and to recognize the delegates of the so-called "regular organization."

It was asserted that if this was not done, that if the "lily white" republicans were accorded representation, the effect among colored voters not only in the south but in the north would be manifest in the next election.

ELECTRIC WITH INTEREST.

Philadelphia, June 18.—After several days of indescribable dullness today is electric with interest. The crowds, which have been conspicuously absent, are arriving on every incoming train and marching clubs and bands are on all of the principal streets, making things lively in true convention style. The perfunctory proceedings of the past few days have given way to aggressiveness and bustle and tens of thousands of strangers will be in the city by nightfall.

The weather today is delightful, fair, cool and bracing. It is in sharp contrast to that of Saturday and Sunday, during which a cold rain fell almost constantly.

Delegation meetings, for the purpose of selecting members of the convention committees, will be the order of the day. Interest, of course, will center in the action of the New York delegation, which will convene at 8 o'clock tonight. At that time action will be taken by the delegation as to Governor Roosevelt and it is not unlikely that he may make some statement at the meeting of his position and desires.

The distribution of tickets for the convention was begun by Sergeant-at-Arms Wisewell this morning. Up to that time not one ticket had left the hands of Mr. Wisewell. The city of Philadelphia was given 4,000 of the cards, which will be given only to those persons who subscribed to the local convention fund. Each delegate received his own and two additional tickets and every alternate was given one seat.

The national committeemen were each presented with twenty-five of the much-sought-after pasteboards, while the remainder were distributed among distinguished men invited by the national committee.

A young man named Mattot was thrown from his wheel on Calhoun street this afternoon and he landed beneath a buggy which was passing. The vehicle passed over the bicycle, but was stopped in time to avoid injuring the rider seriously.

A STATEMENT FROM ROOSEVELT.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—Governor Roosevelt today gave out this statement:

"In view of the revival of the talk of myself as a vice presidential candidate I have this to say:

"It is impossible to too deeply express how touched I am by the attitude of those delegates who have wished me to take this nomination. Moreover, it is not necessary to say how thoroughly I understand the high honor and dignity of the office, an office so high and so honorable that it is well worthy the ambition of any man in the United States. But while I appreciate all this to the full, nevertheless I feel most deeply that the field of my best usefulness to the public and to the party is in New York state and if the party should see fit to renominate me for governor I can in the position help the national ticket as in no other way. I very earnestly ask that every friend of mine in the convention respect my wish and my judgment in this matter."

BERLIN, JUNE 18.—1:30 P. M.—THE GERMAN CONSUL AT CHEFOO CABLES THAT AN ENGAGEMENT IS PROCEEDING AT TAKU BETWEEN THE CHINESE FORTS AND THE FOREIGN WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 18.—THE WAR DEPARTMENT HAS RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING CABLEGRAM FROM GENERAL MAC ARTHUR AT MANILA, DATED YESTERDAY:

"NINTH INFANTRY, COLONEL LISCUM, ORDERED TO TAKU ON LOGAN; TRANSPORTATION PORT ALBERT; PROBABLY START 24TH; TYPHOON DELAYS MOVEMENT."

LONDON, JUNE 18.—4:58 P. M.—THE ADMIRALTY OFFICE HAS RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING OFFICIAL DISPATCH FROM CHEFOO, UNDER TODAY'S DATE:

"THE JAPANESE MAN-OF-WAR TE YAHASI (?) HAS JUST ARRIVED FROM TAKU. SHE REPORTS THAT THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF AND TROOPS ARE BACK AT TIEN-TSIN."

DETAILS OF FIGHTING.

Berlin, June 18.—The German consul at Chee Fu telegraphs that a Japanese torpedo boat from Taku has brought the following:

"The Chinese laid torpedos in the Taku river and collected troops from Shan Hei Kwan. The foreign commanders assembled on the Russian flagship and addressed an ultimatum to the commanders of the Taku forts summoning them to withdraw their troops before 2 o'clock June 16. At 1 p. m., June 17, the guns of the forts opened fire, to which the Russian, British, French and Japanese warships replied. The bombardment lasted seven hours. Two British ships in the river between the forts are reported to have been sunk.

"The telegraph line and railroad between Tien-Tsin and Taku were destroyed. Communication by water is also threatened."

BENGAL REGIMENT NEEDED.

Simla, June 18.—In consequence of the gravity of the Chinese situation the Seventh Bengal infantry has been ordered to proceed to Hong Kong.

RUSSIA DEMANDS INDEMNITY.

London, June 18.—A dispatch from Shanghai says Russia has demanded fifty million taels indemnity for the damage done to the Chinese railroads in which Russians are interested.

BRITISH WARSHIP DAMAGED.

London, June 18.—A dispatch from Che Foo, under today's date, says:

"The forces of the combined fleets occupied the Taku north forts yesterday after exploding a magazine. The British gunboat Algerine was damaged and two of her officers and four men were wounded.

"Japan and Russia are reported to be landing a large force of troops.

"All is quiet here."

CABLE TO TIEN-TSIN.

New York, June 18.—The Central cable office of the Western Union Telegraph company this morning issued the following notice:

"Telegraphic communication with Taku and Tien-Tsin has been re-established via the Siberian and Helampo route."

The Commercial Cable company also makes a similar announcement.

TAKU FORTS OCCUPIED.

London, June 18.—Shanghai is to the front again with the statement that the Taku forts have been occupied by the international troops.

According to a Chefoo special seventeen forts opened fire upon the warships, whereupon the fleet replied in kind and silenced the Chinese guns and the international forces subsequently landed and seized the forts. The news of this engagement is stated to have been brought to Chefoo by a Japanese warship, but the date of the occurrence is not given. According to a dispatch the Chinese bombardment followed an ultimatum sent by the commanders of the fleet.

An official dispatch from the German consul at Chefoo, received in Berlin, confirms the arrival of a Japanese torpedo boat, with the following message:

"The Japanese torpedo boat reports that the legations at Pekin have been taken."

WARSHIPS ENGAGED.

A later dispatch from the same consul, received in Berlin this morning, states that an engagement is proceeding at Taku between the Chinese forts and the foreign warships.

Berlin also has official notification from Shanghai that, owing to the interruption of the telegraph lines, no trustworthy news whatever is obtainable of the events transpiring in Pekin.

WASHINGTON VIEW OF IT.

Washington, June 18.—The actual news of the situation in China was received by the navy department in two cablegrams, the contents of which were made known as follows:

"The department has received a cablegram from Admiral Remey at Cavite, dated 18th, that informs the department that Commander Taussig cables that the Taku forts at the mouth of the river (Pei-Ho) fired on the foreign gun vessels and surrendered to the allied forces on the morning of the 17th. The department has instructed Admiral Kempff to concur with the other powers in taking all steps necessary to protect all American interests.

"A dispatch from Taussig, dated Che Foo, 17th, says that the Taku forts fired on foreign gun vessels at 1:45 in the morning, and reports that the British admiral is at Tien Tsin."

The press dispatch from Manila last night saying that the Ninth infantry had been ordered to Manila for service in China exposed the secret plans of the war department to dispatch troops to the scene of trouble in China. Secret orders were sent to General MacArthur a few days ago to prepare for the prompt dispatch of troops to Taku, but it was not intended that the matter should become public until the movement was at least under way. Now that the matter has leaked out from Manila, the officials of the war department admit that the administration has concluded to send troops to China for the protection of the lives and property of American citizens.

The state department this morning received a cablegram from United States Consul Goodnow at Shanghai repeating the news previously conveyed to the navy department by Admiral Remey and Commander Taussig.

The officials here are puzzled by Taussig's statement that the British admiral has arrived at Tien Tsin. They do not know that more than one British admiral was in the Pei Ho river and that one was Admiral Seymour, who led the international relief column towards Pekin. If it is this officer who has returned to Tien Tsin, then the assumption is that the relief column has failed and has been compelled to retreat to Tien Tsin. This assumption would explain the statement brought by the Japanese torpedo boat that the foreign legations at Pekin had been taken, for that is the only manner in which the news could have reached Tien Tsin.

In this case, it is said that nothing can be done for the relief of the foreign ministers at Pekin, supposing that they are still alive, until a very much stronger relief column can be formed and marched overland to Pekin. Weeks must elapse before this can be accomplished.

DELEGATE GOSSIP

THE MEN OF THE CONVENTION ARE HEARD.

MOST OF THEM OF ONE MIND

THEY WANT ROOSEVELT FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

ROUGH RIDER FIRST CHOICE

READY TO NAME HIM IF HE WILL ACCEPT IT.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The Maine delegation held a meeting at noon. The organization was perfected. Sidney M. Bird being elected chairman. Joseph H. Manley was unanimously re-elected national committeeman. The delegation decided to vote as a unit for Secretary Long as long as he is a candidate before the convention. A committee of five was appointed to act in conjunction with the Massachusetts delegation in booming the candidacy of Long.

The Kansas delegation arrived this morning and a number of delegates reported that sentiment for vice president was nearly unanimous for Roosevelt, Dolliver being second choice.

The West Virginia delegation arrived, some of them very late last night and the balance of them today. In discussing the question of vice president Morris Horkheimer, the probable chairman of the delegation, said:

"We are for Roosevelt if he can be persuaded to take the nomination. If he cannot be induced to run we will go for Dolliver, the greater part of us. We consider him the best man for the position outside of Roosevelt. This is not definite, however, and if Roosevelt will consent to take the place there will be no other choice with us."

THEY WANT ROOSEVELT.

Virginia's contingent also came in and like nearly all other delegations declared itself for Roosevelt if he could be induced to make the race. After Roosevelt they were inclined to favor Dolliver, but said that they would prefer him to any man whom the New York delegation might agree upon. Park Agnew, delegate-at-large from the state, said:

"We do not think there will be any necessity of considering any second person if Roosevelt will consent to run. We think he is the best man for the position if he will accept. After Roosevelt we like Bliss very well, but Dolliver is a good man and we think very well of his chances. The one trouble to our mind regarding Dolliver is that he is not from a state where he can add much strength to the ticket."

MASON NOT FOR ROUGH RIDER.

Senator Mason, of Illinois, was among today's early arrivals. He lost no time in taking a positive position against Governor Roosevelt. "I am for one of the candidates for vice president," he said, "it matters not much which—for one of the men who want the office and are willing to say they want it. I do not want anyone's political feeling violated in the operation of selecting a candidate. I do not believe that Mr. Roosevelt can in honor accept the nomination if tendered him."

Asked if he would make a speech in the convention, the senator replied: "No; I have no apologies to make."

Among the most active people about the Walton corridors today was Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the Woman's Republican league. She is a staunch supporter of Mr. Dolliver and adheres to her confidence in his nomination.

"Governor Roosevelt is an ideal candidate," she said, "but I believe that he can serve the country, the party and the state of New York better as governor of that state than as vice president, therefore I don't want him nominated, and I do want Mr. Dolliver to succeed, because he embodies more of the Roosevelt qualities than any other candidate."

BAY STATE FOR LONG.

The Massachusetts delegates put in a very busy forenoon. The delegation was split up into small committees for the purpose of lining up the representatives from other states for Secretary Long for the vice presidency. A committee of fifteen called on all of the New England states and found them loyal to the Massachusetts candidate so long as his name is before the convention.

From most of the states outside of New England, however, they could get no positive pledges for their candidate.

The New Hampshire delegation today perfected its organization. Senator Gallinger was elected chairman. The New Hampshire men passed a resolution to stand by Secretary Long for second place on the ticket until he is elected or withdraws.

The representatives from Oklahoma territory partially organized today. Harry C. Thompson was selected to head the delegation. A poll was taken and it was found that they will support Dolliver for vice president. If Roosevelt allows his name to be presented to the convention, then the territory's vote will go to him.

MISSOURI LOVE FEAST.

The fight in the Missouri delegation for national committeeman from that state wound up today in a love feast. The climax was reached when J. A. Akin, the Missouri state chairman, who led the faction opposed to Richard C. Kerens, shook hands with the latter amid the cheers of the whole delegation. The reconciliation was brought about in a speech by Charles G. Benton, who asked the two men to come together in the interest of harmony and for the success of the national ticket in Missouri in the coming election. Several other speeches were made and the delegation was organizd without any friction whatever. When Committeeman Kerens was unanimously re-elected every one in the room stood up and cheered. D. M. Houser was elected chairman of the delegation.

POLICE ROUND UP HOBOES

ONE OF THEM HAD INVADED A WEST END HOME.

Fines of $10 and Costs Assessed and the Gang All Went to Jail

—Police Notes.

There were ten tramps in police court this morning, the police having made a general round-up of the roustabouts last Saturday evening. There has been much complaint from west end residents about the actions of gangs of tramps who congregate in the suburbs at intervals and Saturday morning one of the hoboes was bold enough to invade a house on DeGroff street and insult a housewife, whose husband was absent. The husband works in the southern part of the city and left home before 5 o'clock. The wife went to lie down with her four-months-old babe and in half an hour heard a noise in the kitchen. She went to the kitchen and near the table stood a big burly fellow, who demanded something to eat. The woman refused and the tramp threatened. She started for the bedroom and the fellow followed. The wife then turned on him and the coward backed toward the door, and when the woman threatened to call her husband he laughed and told her he had seen her husband leave with his dinner pail. The big brute then insulted the housewife by committing acts which should keep him behind prison bars forever and left the house. The wife was prostrated and the first person who knew of the affair was her husband, who returned at 1:30 p. m. He informed Superintendent Gorsline and the superintendent, with Detective Coling and Officers Heller, Blum, Lavanway and Greer, visited the west end and landed ten hoboes behind the bars. This morning Mayor Scherer sent the entire gang to jail for twenty-one days and the DeGroff street housewife will call at the jail and see if the big brute who invaded her home is in the gang.

GAMBLERS RAIDED.

Captain Whitney and Officers Rohrer and Borgman Saturday night raided the poker rooms upstairs at No. 27 Calhoun street and arrested seven poker players. They all put up forfeit and did not appear in police court. The gamekeeper paid $21 and the players $16 each.

An employe of the electric corporation who had a habit of riding on Pennsylvania trains from the works to the depot was arrested by Pennsylvania Captain Stoll and this morning Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $1 and costs. The sentence was suspended.

HE WAS A PIONEER MERCHANT

ALFRED D. BRANDRIFF PASSES FROM EARTH.

Died Sunday Morning at the Age of 83—Other Deaths and Funeral Notices.

Alfred D. Brandriff, who far many years was a prominent citizen of Fort Wayne, died Sunday morning at the home of his son-in-law, A. T. Lukens, on West Berry street, at the advanced age of 83 years. Mr. Brandriff was a pioneer merchant of this city, but for the past eighteen years has resided upon a large farm owned by him near Marion, Il. Some weeks ago he became ill and was brought to this city in the hope of regaining his health. Despite the efforts of skilled physicians and the tender care of loving friends, the aged man continued to decline, and for several days had been near death's door. The end which came Sunday morning had been forseen.

Mr. Brandriff was born in Cincinnati March 2, 1817, and the early years of his life were spent in that city. When a young man he went to Troy, Ohio, and established a large stove foundry, one of the first establishments of its kind in the west. In 1842 he was married to Miss Mary A. Roberts, of Dayton, Ohio, who died in this city in 1863. To this union were born two children—Mrs. Martha Hanna and Mrs. A. T. Lukens, both of whom reside in this city.

In 1851 Mr. Brandriff came to Fort Wayne from Troy, making the journey on horseback, which was the only mode of travel available at that time. His family followed a year later. Mr. Brandriff established a hardware and stove store in Fort Wayne, and out of it grew the large wholesale and retail hardware house of A. D. Brandriff & Co., which was for many years one of the largest and best known in northern Indiana. He was formerly a director of the First National bank, and was one of the incorporators of Lindenwood cemetery. Mr. Brandriff retired from active business in 1885.

In 1866 he was united in marriage to Martha Crane Taylor, of Collinville, Conn., who still survives. For nearly fifty years Mr. Brandriff was a devoted member of the First Presbyterian church and throughout his life he exemplified the highest type of citizenship.

Besides the wife and daughters mentioned above there are nine grandchildren surviving—Alfred B. Lukens, of New York; John L. Hanna, of the Pennsylvania offices; Mrs. Frederick Reusch, (formerly Marguerite Hanna) of Petoskey, Mich.; Edward Lukens, Mary Hanna and Clara, Grace, Lydia and Martha Lukens, of this city.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of A. T. Lukens, 236 West Berry street, at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to the services. The interment will be private. Rev. D. W. Moffat will conduct the funeral services.

KRETSINGER.

Henry R. Kretsinger, who has been a patient at St. Joseph's hospital for some time, died Sunday night at the age of 76 years. Mr. Kretsinger was born in Hardie county, W. Va., November 21, 1824, and many years ago conducted a drug store at Lagro. Later he resided at Kalamazoo and removed to Fort Wayne in 1883. For a time he was engaged in the sale of territory for a patent, and afterwards entered the real estate business.

Surviving him are two sons, John Kretsinger, who is foreman of the Pittsburg planing mills, and Constantine Kretsinger, who is a machinist at Kalamazoo. He also leaves a widow and one step-daughter, Mrs. Charles Trisket, of West Washington street.

The remains were removed to the home of his son, John Kretsinger, No. 17 Miner street.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

NEUENSCHWANDER.

Miss Tillie Neuenschwander, who was for several years a clerk in the DeWald dry goods house, died Sunday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Neuenschwander, 75 Columbia avenue, after a protracted illness from consumption. She was taken ill in October last and in the extended weeks of suffering had been patient and resigned. Miss Neuenschwander was 38 years of age and a devoted member of Grace Reformed church. The surviving brothers and sisters are Mrs. William Henderson, of this city; Albert Neuenschwander, of Ashland, Wis., and R. C. Neuenschwander, of St. Paul, Minn.

The funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. K. Zartman officiating.

MARQUARDT.

Philip Marquardt, a prominent farmer of Madison township, died on Friday from consumption, at the age of 60 years. Mr. Marquardt had but recently returned from the west, where he went in the hope of benefiting his health.

SIMONS.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simons, of 156 Wallace street, died on Saturday from exhaustion. The remains were interred at Lindenwood.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

London, June 18.—A belated dispatch from Lord Roberts, sent from Pretoria under date of June 16, gives an official version of an attack on a British post at Zand river, June 16, by 800 Boers, with three guns. It says that General Knox, with a mixed force, drove off the Boers, who left four dead and four prisoners on the field. The British loss was Major Seymour and two men killed and nine wounded.

A rumor at Cape Town that Lord Roberts is about to seize the Delagoa Bay railroad at a strong strategic point, and the announcement of the completion of the new Cape cabinet constitute the only other news from South Africa today.

A REACTION NOTICEABLE.

Elkhart, Ind., June 16.—Dr. Thomas Montgomery, a colored practitioner, whose license lapsed while he was imprisoned at Michigan City for criminal malpractice, and who was indicted after returning home for resuming the practice of his profession, is finding a difficult road to travel because of repeated prosecutions instigated by Dr. Charles H. Niman, of this city. The first indictment was quashed. Dr. Montgomery was then rearrested on an affidavit and information, and that document was quashed. Yesterday Dr. Niman went to Goshen, and a warrant was issued by a justice of the peace on the same old charge. The case has been continued until Monday, Dr. Montgomery depositing cash bail. Heretofore the people have taken little interest in the matter, but the last arrest has caused a reaction in the colored man's favor, and has strengthened him in this community.

The wedding will take place at the Cathedral tomorrow morning, Rev. Father O'Reilly officiating.

HE WILL RESIGN.

PROF. C. T. LANE TO PASS THE SUPERINTENDENCY.

STUDY TO BE REAPPOINTED

THE SCHOOL BOARD WILL TAKE ACTION TONIGHT.

A VEXED SITUATION SOLVED

PROFESSOR LANE WILL CONTINUE IN HIGH SCHOOL.

Prof. C. T. Lane, who was appointed superintendent of the Fort Wayne public schools to succeed Prof. J. N. Study, has tendered his resignation to the board of school trustees. The board will meet tonight to take action upon the matter. The program will be to accept Professor Lane's resignation, re-appoint Superintendent Study and then restore Professor Lane to his position as principal of the Fort Wayne high school.

This program has been made possible by the generous action of Professor Lane in relinquishing the superintendency in order that the distressing agitation which followed and has continued since the ousting of Professor Study may be stopped, and the evil being so wrought to to the public schools may meet a sudden quietus.

Superintendent Study will be reappointed at his former salary of $3,000 a year, the majority of the board taking the position that as there was no cause demanding his removal his services are worth to the public schools what he has been receiving for the past three years.

While it has been suspected that Professor Lane would rise to the paramount occasion definite announcement of it is today made public for the first time. Public sentiment has been so unanimous that Superintendent Study should never have been removed that it has been plain no action would be satisfactory save the reappointment of Mr. Study, since reorganization of the board made it possible, contingent upon Mr. Lane's resigning.

Professor Lane's high-minded and conspicuously unselfish action is certain to evoke a universal expression of approval of his course and praise of his manliness.

Judge Baker and the other officers of the United States court will arrive from Indianapolis this evening and the federal court will convene in this city tomorrow. A patent suit is first upon the docket and already many models have been placed in the court room for reference during the trial, in which the Peerless Dental Cuspidor company, of this city, seeks to prevent the use of an apparatus which they claim is an infringement upon their product.

PASSENGERS PROTECTED.

Needles, Cal., June 18.—The federal quarantine inspector has been prevented from molesting passengers on Santa Fe trains at the state line and his authority is ignored by the railroad officials. Orders have been issued to all conductors to take up the pass of the inspector, Mr. Jenkins, if presented, and collect his fare. Jenkins has wired to Surgeon Kinyon for instructions. The conductors have also been ordered to give the inspector no information.

WHEAT SCORES AN ADVANCE.

Chicago, June 18.—Wheat scored a sensational advance today. July option sold at the opening on the board of trade at 75⅝c to 75⅞c, and under an enormous demand steadily advanced in price till a sale was made at 79⅜c, 4⅛@4¼c higher than the last sale of Saturday's trade. The advance was caused by reports alleging the almost total failure of the spring wheat crop in the Dakotas and Minnesota. These states are the greatest spring wheat growing sections in the country and the failure this season is said to be the worst in many years. A local expert who has been investigating the damages wrought today reported that the three states could not raise 100,000,000 bushels of wheat, a decrease from last year's yield of 120,000,000 bushels. Men who had bought wheat weeks, and even days, ago at a lower figure today took out moderate fortunes in profits. The close was at 78¾@78⅞c for July.

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE

What Becomes of the Patient?

Doctors have their hobbies as well as other people and in the treatment of disease often carry them too far for the patient's good. For instance, in the treatment of indigestion or dyspepsia many doctors give bismuth and nothing else; others rely on pepsin to bring their patients through; still another doctor treats stomach troubles with the various vegetable essences and fruit salts.

Now one or the other of these excellent remedies becoms a hobby with th doctor who has had most success with the particular one in question, because all of them are first-class remedies for indigestion and dyspepsia, but not one of them alone is so good as a combination of all of them, such as is found in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which contains not only vegetable essences and fruit salts, but also the freshest, purest pepsin and bismuth, making altogether a remedy unsurpassed for every form of indigestion, sour stomach, nervous dyspepsia, belching of gas, distress after eating, sleeplessness, headaches, etc.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is not a secret patent nostrum, but you can see for yourself what it is and knowing this, its success as a dyspepsia cure is not surprising. All druggists recommend them and sell them at 50 cents.

Vice Presidential Tide Will Sweep the Rough Rider Before the Convention.

HE DALLIES WITH THE TEMPTATION

Philadelphia, June 18.—Unless the concensus of opinion of the most experienced political observers in the country is awry the selection of a candidate for vice president virtually will have been made before today closes.

The key to the situation is held by Governor Theodore Roosevelt, of New York. He alone can unlock it, and it seems certain at this writing that McKinley and Roosevelt will be the slogan with which the republicans will appeal to the country in the approaching campaign.

And yet Governor Roosevelt will have to decide, and thus far he has not said the decisive word. His position is unique in any politics. He does not desire, personally, the nomination for vice president. The acknowledged leaders of the administration forces in the convention, down deep in the hearts, do not want him to take it. Their opposition is not personal to Roosevelt. Largely, it is because some of the administration leaders have other preferences. That is true of Mr. Hanna.

HANNA WANTS BLISS.

His personal choice is former Secretary Bliss, of New York. He made his choice without detracting in the least from the distinctive qualifications of other aspirants for vice presidential honors—notably Long, Dolliver and others.

Confronted by such a situation Governor Roosevelt's position is better imagined than described. Several weeks ago he said to the president that he would not, in any conceivable circumstances, be a candidate for vice president. He believed he might serve better the interests of the republican party by standing again for the governorship of New York. He believes that now. His position is unchanged, he says. Yet, in face of that fact, and in the face of the desire of a few, at least, of the well known administration leaders to nominate somebody else, the nomination seems to be forcing itself, by a curious combination of circumstances, upon the New York governor, whether he wants it or not, and whether the leaders want him to have it or not.

UP TO M'KINLEY.

The running of the tide towards Roosevelt can be stemmed only by one man—the president. The drift of sentiment always has been towards a New York man, because of the prevalent belief that a strong New York man was needed on the ticket.

This fact accounts for the rise of the Roosevelt stock yesterday. In wonderful degree McKinley is the dominant force of this assemblage of republicans. No considerable fraction of the delegates to the convention desires to do that which the president does not want done.

But the president is saying nothing.

The formidable proportions assumed by the Roosevelt boom—if so it may be termed—was the subject of earnest consideration by the prominent republican leaders who attended the dinner at the residence of Clement A. Griscom, just outside of Philadelphia last night. That dinner may become historic.

Only friends of the administration were present—only leaders of the administration forces. The platform was discussed and so was Roosevelt.

ROUGH RIDER FLIRTING.

From one who attended the dinner it is learned that there is a question among the friends of the president, who believe they have the entire convention situation well in hand, whether they will join Governor Roosevelt in an attempt to stem the stampede which started towards the New York rough rider executive yesterday. There is an apparent misunderstanding between Roosevelt and the leaders of the convention. A strong disposition was manifested in some quarters to suspect that he had been flirting with fate all along and that he has not been "Honest Injun" in statements that he does not desire the nomination. This belief, it was contended, did Governor Roosevelt injustice and it was said that when he and those who were inclined to oppose him got together the seeming difference seen would be resolved.

The chief difficulty encountered by those who would nominate some other man than Roosevelt is to find a satisfactory candidate upon whom all can agree and who will appeal to the delegates as a candidate who will add material strength to the ticket and be of presidential calibre in the unfortunate contingency that he should be called to the chair of the chief executive.

It is pointed out that Roosevelt is a vote-getter. Indeed, one of the strong arguments made to him by his admirers was that the campaign as a candidate for the vice presidency would afford him brilliant opportunity to display to the best advantage in the interests of his party the talents he possesses in so notable a degree as a political orator.

LONG RANGE POLITICS.

It is quite certain that long-range politics is being played in the game now proceeding in this staid Quaker city. It is indicated that Governor Roosevelt has aspirations to be the party's candidate for the presidency in 1904. Those who are pressing his candidacy for the vice presidency now have told him that, in the event of his making a great campaign on the stump this year, the credit for victory, if victory again should come to the republicans, largely would be his and thus he would be in strong position to appeal to the party for the presidential nomination.

Even if Mr. Bliss finally should consent to become a candidate—and a strong intimation is given that, in certain circumstances, he could be induced to stand—it is questionable whether to nominate him over the heads of the leaders of the New York republicans would be desirable policy.

One of the distinguished participants in the conference and dinner at Mr. Griscom's last night, when asked today whether an effort would be made to stem the stampede towards Roosevelt begun Sunday, replied:

"With whom would you stem it? You cannot defeat something with nothing. Governor Roosevelt's candidacy is something tangible. It no longer can be reckoned with as an ephemeral thing."

In a nut shell that is the situation as it is regarded by the best political minds in attendance upon the convention.

WOULD NOT UPSET BALLOT.

It is intimated, but the intimation lacks even the tacit confirmation of Governor Roosevelt himself, that he will rise to a question of personal privilege in the convention and either withdraw his name unconditionally or state his reasons for not desiring the nomination. That he will decline the nomination, if once it should be made, nobody believes. In fact, he said that no man, in such circumstances, could refuse to obey the party's mandate and live in the hope of a political future.

The intimation, it may be said, originated with friends of Representative Dolliver, the magnetic orator of Iowa, who made so strong a bid for the vice-presidential nomination.

In connection with the Sunday stampede for Roosevelt, some signed statements are published today which indicate that it has developed considerable feeling.

General Grosvenor, the distinguished Ohioan, who generally is regarded as the mouthpiece of the administration on the floor of the house of representatives and is the father of the Dolliver boom, among other things says:

"There are rumors to the effect that because the administration is not anxious for the nomination of Governor Roosevelt certain persons, feeling some grievance against the administration, are organizing, or attempting to organize, to force Roosevelt on the ticket. That this can be done successfully without the consent and connivance of Roosevelt no man believes.

HINTS AT PLATT'S PLOT.

"That Roosevelt in this way is playing the part which involves duplicity nobody is heard to assert. That there is a deep purpose to drive Roosevelt from the campaign for governor in New York everybody knows. It may be that those of us

THE HURRAH WORK BEGINS

Philadelphia, June 18.—From a spectacular standpoint the convention began today. Over night the city blossomed like a flower garden. Bright skies smiled and a cool breeze instilled life and animation into the constantly swelling crowds. By every train they are pouring into the city and the town awoke to the strains of martial music as one of the marching clubs swung up the streets headed by a brass band playing as if its salvation depended upon the vigor put into the music. There has not been an hour since when the air was not filled with music and in which bands have not been parading in some quarter of the city, meeting and escorting the incoming delegates, clubs and distinguished visitors.

The leaders are being serenaded and the hotel corridors are jammed with seething, struggling crowds.

And the Roosevelt contagion is everywhere. The town is mad with delight at the prospect of his nomination. His badge is on every lapel. His name is on every lip. Nothing else is talked of. In the streets the newsboys dinned him in every ear and the fakirs with an endless supply of buttons shouted their wares in the sporting parlance of their kind, "McKinley, with Roosevelt for a place."

There was the biggest kind of a turnout of pretty women and almost without exception they were wearing the vignettes of the Empire state governor. So far as the populace is concerned it is taken for granted that the ticket is already nominated. The crowds will not listen to the suggestion that Roosevelt himself may upset the program. They say he had as well attempt to stay the torrent of Niagara.

In the hotels the delegates were busy holding state meetings, selecting committeemen and distributing badges. These latter are the handsomest seen in years. These consist of simple bronze medallions, suspended by ribbons from a bronze bar. On the medallions are the faces of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley superimposed upon each other, McKinley's likeness uppermost. The leaders are pow-wowing. The national committee held a final meeting to clear the decks for tomorrow's action and the convention officials are engaged in the distribution of the tickets and in adjusting the thousand and one dettails which remain to be attended to.

A NEW CANDIDATE.

The latest candidate for vice president is Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia.

Senator Scott was brought out by the Virginia delegation, which decided today to give him the support of her twenty votes in the convention. His name will be presented by Hon. J. Hampton Hoge, of Roanoke. The understanding is that West Virginia also will throw her twelve votes to Senator Scott, notwithstanding the fact that personally Mr. Scott has declared for his colleague, Senator Stephen B. Elkins.

A conference that was called in Senator Hanna's room this afternoon was still in session at 1:10.

Among those who participated were Senators Allison, Scott and Carter, Wayne MacVeagh and Secretary Dick.

The principal point under discussion was whether a fight should be made to prevent the nomination of Roosevelt. The policy of such a movement in the face of the demonstration which has developed, is questioned, and there is yet the great difficulty of finding a suitable candidate. Senator Hanna told the gentlemen that he thought Roosevelt ought to put an end to the matter. In the course of the conversation it developed that Mr. Hanna had been to Roosevelt some time ago and asked him to become a candidate. It is understood Roosevelt declared then he would not accept if nominated. Senator Hanna thinks Roosevelt should make that declaration public now in order to relieve the embarassment that has been caused by the strenuous effort being made to nominate him. Hanna acknowledged that there was no candidate in sight, but thought the matter might be settled in the convention if the Roosevelt stampede could be checked.

NOTHING ACCOMPLISHED.

At 2:30 the conference ended for the time, without any actual result being accomplished. Senator Hanna said:

"It seems to me that it would be just as well to wait until the delegates arrive and see what they want to do about the vice presidency."

He declared that the administration had no candidate. Personally he thought Secretary Long was in every way qualified for the position. The senator believes that if Governor Roosevelt will take the same decided stand now that he took a few weeks ago in Washington it will put a stop to the talk about him.

That stand is that he would not accept the nomination even if it was tendered to him.

After the conference with Governor Roosevelt Senator Hanna was asked, "Do you think Roosevelt wants the nomination?"

"Well, I don't know. He knows how he can stop it."

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The national republican committee has again decided to refer the principal contests in the state of Alabama to the convention, to be investigated by the committee on credentials. The leaders thought Saturday that they had succeeded in securing an agreement for the elimination of the office-holders and the seating of an equal number of men from the two delegations to make full representation from the state. Obstacles were, however, found in the way of this proceeding in a large part of the state, and when the matter was taken up in the committee today that body decided to put none of the delegates from the state at large or from the Third and Fifth districts on the temporary roll.

After an hour's sitting the committee concluded its ante-convention labors and adjourned sine die. Aside from the action taken upon the Alabama contest the most important matter which came before the committee at today's meeting was the resignation of Colonel Swords as sergeant-at-arms of the committee. The colonel has held this position for twelve years and there were general expressions of regret as well as of surprise over his determination to resign. A testimonial resolution introduced by Mr. Fessenden was unanimously adopted after eulogistic remarks by Messrs. Payne, Clayton, Manley, Thurston and Gibbs.

After resolutions of thanks to Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick, and also to the press of the country and the people of Philadelphia, the committee adjourned.

MOUNT SPIKED BOOMLET.

Philadelphia, June 18.—Harry C. New, of Indianapolis, candidate for national committeeman from his state, says that if Governor Mount had consented his name would have been presented for second place on the ticket. Failing to get this consent, the Indiana delegation had resolved to be governed by the sentiment of the convention, and he was of the opinion that the nomination of Roosevelt for vice president would be headed off.

DELEGATIONS ARRIVE.

Philadelphia, June 18.—The Hamilton club, of Chicago, 100 men, arrived and paraded throughout the principal streets on the way to their hotel. The club, which displayed several gorgeous banners, was neatly attired in black, with silk hats, each member carrying an umbrella. The club was headed by a band of seventy-five boys which they brought from Chicago.

The Marquette club, of Chicago, 250 strong, reached here early today and went through to Atlantic City. They will return in time for the parade tonight.

The Unconditional Republican club, of Albany, Col. George Addington, marshal, is en route to this city by boat and will arrive at 6 o'clock.

Three Washington, D. C., clubs arrived at the same hour. They were the Blaine Invincible Republican club, 125 men; the W. Calvin Chase Republican club, and the N. W. Parker Republican club, 150 men. Winfield Scott Hancock, marshal.

The New Jersey delegation opened headquarters today at the Lafayette hotel. The entire delegation is now here, with the exception of Governor Voorhees, who is on his way home from Europe and is expected to arrive either tomorrow or Wednesday. A conference will be held late this afternoon. Among the clubs which arrived during the afternoon were the Young Men's Republican Tariff club, of Pittsburg, 175 men; the Young Men's Blaine club, of Cincinnati, Capt. John Proctor, marshal; the Afro-American league, of Wilmington, Del., and the Lewis H. Scott Republican association, of Atlantic City, 75 members.

COLORED POLITICIANS THERE.

A meeting of colored men who are here as delegates or lookers-on was held today for the purpose of discussing the action taken by the national committee in refusing to place on the temporary roll delegates who represented the "regular republican organization" in some of the southern states. William Copeland, ex-member of the Ohio legislature, acted as chairman, and among the twenty-five or thirty present were J. A. Brown, W. H. Clifford, S. H. Thomas, of Ohio; Charles Anderson, of New York; Bruce Boyle, of New York, and Mr. Marshall, of Illinois.

Several speeches were made and the sentiment was in favor of sustaining the position of National Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick regarding the matter, and it was resolved to bring to bear all the pressure possible upon the committee on credentials to induce them to reverse the action of the committee and to recognize the delegates of the so-called "regular organization."

It was asserted that if this was not done, that if the "lily white" republicans were accorded representation, the effect among colored voters not only in the south but in the north would be manifest in the next election.

ELECTRIC WITH INTEREST.

Philadelphia, June 18.—After several days of indescribable dullness today is electric with interest. The crowds, which have been conspicuously absent, are arriving on every incoming train and marching clubs and bands are on all of the principal streets, making things lively in true convention style. The perfunctory proceedings of the past few days have given way to aggressiveness and bustle and tens of thousands of strangers will be in the city by nightfall.

The weather today is delightful, fair, cool and bracing. It is in sharp contrast to that of Saturday and Sunday, during which a cold rain fell almost constantly.

Delegation meetings, for the purpose of selecting members of the convention committees, will be the order of the day. Interest, of course, will center in the action of the New York delegation, which will convene at 8 o'clock tonight. At that time action will be taken by the delegation as to Governor Roosevelt and it is not unlikely that he may make some statement at the meeting of his position and desires.

The distribution of tickets for the convention was begun by Sergeant-at-Arms Wisewell this morning. Up to that time not one ticket had left the hands of Mr. Wisewell. The city of Philadelphia was given 4,000 of the cards, which will be given only to those persons who subscribed to the local convention fund. Each delegate received his own and two additional tickets and every alternate was given one seat.

The national committeemen were each presented with twenty-five of the much-sought-after pasteboards, while the remainder were distributed among distinguished men invited by the national committee.

A young man named Mattot was thrown from his wheel on Calhoun street this afternoon and he landed beneath a buggy which was passing. The vehicle passed over the bicycle, but was stopped in time to avoid injuring the rider seriously.

A STATEMENT FROM ROOSEVELT.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—Governor Roosevelt today gave out this statement:

"In view of the revival of the talk of myself as a vice presidential candidate I have this to say:

"It is impossible to too deeply express how touched I am by the attitude of those delegates who have wished me to take this nomination. Moreover, it is not necessary to say how thoroughly I understand the high honor and dignity of the office, an office so high and so honorable that it is well worthy the ambition of any man in the United States. But while I appreciate all this to the full, nevertheless I feel most deeply that the field of my best usefulness to the public and to the party is in New York state and if the party should see fit to renominate me for governor I can in the position help the national ticket as in no other way. I very earnestly ask that every friend of mine in the convention respect my wish and my judgment in this matter."

TAKU FORTS TAKEN

Are Surrendered to the Fleets of the Powers After Being Bombarded.

THE SITUATION REMAINS VERY TENSE

WASHINGTON, JUNE 18.—THE NAVY DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN INFORMED BY ADMIRAL KEMPFF THAT THE TAKU FORTS YESTERDAY FIRED ON THE FOREIGN SHIPS AND AFTER A BRIEF ENGAGEMENT SURRENDERED.

BERLIN, JUNE 18.—1:30 P. M.—THE GERMAN CONSUL AT CHEFOO CABLES THAT AN ENGAGEMENT IS PROCEEDING AT TAKU BETWEEN THE CHINESE FORTS AND THE FOREIGN WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 18.—THE WAR DEPARTMENT HAS RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING CABLEGRAM FROM GENERAL MAC ARTHUR AT MANILA, DATED YESTERDAY:

"NINTH INFANTRY, COLONEL LISCUM, ORDERED TO TAKU ON LOGAN; TRANSPORTATION PORT ALBERT; PROBABLY START 20TH; TYPHOON DELAYS MOVEMENT."

LONDON, JUNE 18.—4:58 P. M.—THE ADMIRALTY OFFICE HAS RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING OFFICIAL DISPATCH FROM CHEFOO, UNDER TODAY'S DATE:

"THE JAPANESE MAN-OF-WAR TE YAHASI (?) HAS JUST ARRIVED FROM TAKU. SHE REPORTS THAT THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF AND TROOPS ARE BACK AT TIEN-TSIN."

DETAILS OF FIGHTING.

Berlin, June 18.—The German consul at Chee Fu telegraphs that a Japanese torpedo boat from Taku has brought the following:

"The Chinese laid torpedos in the Taku river and collected troops from Shan Hei Kwan. The foreign commanders assembled on the Russian flagship and addressed an ultimatum to the commanders of the Taku forts summoning them to withdraw their troops before 2 o'clock June 16. At 1 p. m., June 17, the guns of the forts opened fire, to which the Russian, British, French and Japanese warships replied. The bombardment lasted seven hours. Two British ships in the river between the forts are reported to have been sunk.

"The telegraph line and railroad between Tien-Tsin and Taku were destroyed. Communication by water is also threatened."

BENGAL REGIMENT NEEDED.

Simla, June 18.—In consequence of the gravity of the Chinese situation the Seventh Bengal infantry has been ordered to proceed to Hong Kong.

RUSSIA DEMANDS INDEMNITY.

London, June 18.—A dispatch from Shanghai says Russia has demanded fifty million taels indemnity for the damage done to the Chinese railroads in which Russians are interested.

BRITISH WARSHIP DAMAGED.

London, June 18.—A dispatch from Che Foo, under today's date, says:

"The forces of the combined fleets occupied the Taku north forts yesterday after exploding a magazine. The British gunboat Algerine was damaged and two of her officers and four men were wounded.

"Japan and Russia are reported to be landing a large force of troops.

"All is quiet here."

CABLE TO TIEN-TSIN.

New York, June 18. The Central cable office of the Western Union Telegraph company this morning issued the following notice:

"Telegraphic communication with Taku and Tien-Tsin has been re-established via the Siberian and Helampo route."

The Commercial Cable company also makes a similar announcement.

TAKU FORTS OCCUPIED.

London, June 18.—Shanghai is to the front again with the statement that the Taku forts have been occupied by the international troops.

According to a Chefoo special seventeen forts opened fire upon the warships, whereupon the fleet replied in kind and silenced the Chinese guns and the international forces subsequently landed and seized the forts. The news of this engagement is stated to have been brought to Chefoo by a Japanese warship, but the date of the occurrence is not given. According to a dispatch the Chinese bombardment followed an ultimatum sent by the commanders of the fleet.

An official dispatch from the German consul at Chefoo, received in Berlin, confirms the arrival of a Japanese torpedo boat, with the following message:

"The Japanese torpedo boat reports that the legations at Pekin have been taken."

WARSHIPS ENGAGED.

A later dispatch from the same consul, received in Berlin this morning, states that an engagement is proceeding at Taku between the Chinese forts and the foreign warships.

Berlin also has official notification from Shanghai that, owing to the interruption of the telegraph lines, no trustworthy news whatever is obtainable of the events transpiring in Pekin.

WASHINGTON VIEW OF IT.

Washington, June 18.—The actual news of the situation in China was received by the navy department in two cablegrams, the contents of which were made known as follows:

"The department has received a cablegram from Admiral Remey at Cavite, dated 18th, that informs the department that Commander Taussig cables that the Taku forts at the mouth of the river (Pei-Ho) fired on the foreign gun vessels and surrendered to the allied forces on the morning of the 17th. The department has instructed Admiral Kempff to concur with the other powers in taking all steps necessary to protect all American interests.

"A dispatch from Taussig, dated Che Foo, 17th, says that the Taku forts fired on foreign gun vessels at 1:45 in the morning, and reports that the British admiral is at Tien Tsin."

The press dispatch from Manila last night saying that the Ninth infantry had been ordered to Manila for service in China exposed the secret plans of the war department in dispatch troops to the scene of trouble in China. Secret orders were sent to General MacArthur a few days ago to prepare for the prompt dispatch of troops to Taku, but it was not intended that the matter should become public until the movement was at least under way. Now that the matter has leaked out from Manila, the officials of the war department admit that the administration has concluded to send troops to China for the protection of the lives and property of American citizens.

The state department this morning received a cablegram from United States Consul Goodnow at Shanghai repeating the news previously conveyed to the navy department by Admiral Remey and Commander Taussig.

The officials here are puzzled by Taussig's statement that the British admiral has arrived at Tien Tsin. They do not know that more than one British admiral was in the Pei Ho river and that one was Admiral Seymour, who led the international relief column towards Pekin. If it is this officer who has returned to Tien Tsin, then the assumption is that the relief column has failed and has been compelled to retreat to Tien Tsin. This assumption would explain the statement brought by the Japanese torpedo boat that the foreign legations at Pekin had been taken, for that is the only manner in which the news could have reached Tien Tsin.

In this case, it is said that nothing can be done for the relief of the foreign ministers at Pekin, supposing that they are still alive, until a very much stronger relief column can be formed and marched overland to Pekin. Weeks must elapse before this can be accomplished.

DELEGATE GOSSIP

THE MEN OF THE CONVENTION ARE HEARD.

MOST OF THEM OF ONE MIND

THEY WANT ROOSEVELT FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

ROUGH RIDER FIRST CHOICE

READY TO NAME HIM IF HE WILL ACCEPT IT.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The Maine delegation held a meeting at noon. The organization was perfected, Sidney M. Bird being elected chairman. Joseph H. Manley was unanimously re-elected national committeeman. The delegation decided to vote as a unit for Secretary Long as long as he is a candidate before the convention. A committee of five was appointed to act in conjunction with the Massachusetts delegation in booming the candidacy of Long.

The Kansas delegation arrived this morning and a number of delegates reported that sentiment for vice president was nearly unanimous for Roosevelt, Dolliver being second choice.

The West Virginia delegation arrived, some of them very late last night and the balance of them today. In discussing the question of vice president Morris Horkheimer, the probable chairman of the delegation, said:

"We are for Roosevelt if he can be persuaded to take the nomination. If he cannot be induced to run we will go for Dolliver, the greater part of us. We consider him the best man for the position outside of Roosevelt. This is not definite, however, and if Roosevelt will consent to take the place there will be no other choice with us."

THEY WANT ROOSEVELT.

Virginia's contingent also came in and like nearly all other delegations declared itself for Roosevelt if he could be induced to make the race. After Roosevelt they were inclined to favor Dolliver, but said that they would prefer him to any man whom the New York delegation might agree upon. Park Agnew, delegate-at-large from the state, said:

"We do not think there will be any necessity of considering any second person if Roosevelt will consent to run. We think he is the best man for the position if he will accept. After Roosevelt we like Bliss very well, but Dolliver is a good man and we think very well of his chances. The one trouble to our mind regarding Dolliver is that he is not from a state where he can add much strength to the ticket."

MASON NOT FOR ROUGH RIDER.

Senator Mason, of Illinois, was among today's early arrivals. He lost no time in taking a positive position against Governor Roosevelt. "I am for one of the candidates for vice president," he said, "it matters not much which—for one of the men who want the office and are willing to say they want it. I do not want anyone's political feeling violated in the operation of selecting a candidate. I do not believe that Mr. Roosevelt can in honor accept the nomination if tendered him."

Asked if he would make a speech in the convention, the senator replied: "No; I have no apologies to make."

Among the most active people about the Walton corridors today was Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the Woman's Republican league. She is a staunch supporter of Mr. Dolliver and adheres to her confidence in his nomination.

"Governor Roosevelt is an ideal candidate," she said, "but I believe that he can serve the country, the party and the state of New York better as governor of that state than as vice president, therefore I don't want him nominated, and I do want Mr. Dolliver to succeed, because he embodies more of the Roosevelt qualities than any other candidate."

BAY STATE FOR LONG.

The Massachusetts delegates put in a very busy forenoon. The delegation was split up into small committees for the purpose of lining up the representatives from other states for Secretary Long for the vice presidency. A committee of fifteen called on all of the New England states and found them loyal to the Massachusetts candidate so long as his name is before the convention.

From most of the states outside of New England, however, they could get no positive pledges for their candidate.

The New Hampshire delegation today perfected its organization. Senator Gallinger was elected chairman. The New Hampshire men passed a resolution to stand by Secretary Long for second place on the ticket until he is elected or withdraws.

The representatives from Oklahoma territory partially organized today. Harry C. Thompson was selected to head the delegation. A poll was taken and it was found that they will support Dolliver for vice president. If Roosevelt allows his name to be presented to the convention, then the territory's vote will go to him.

MISSOURI LOVE FEAST.

The fight in the Missouri delegation for national committeeman from that state wound up today in a love feast. The climax was reached when J. A. Akin, the Missouri state chairman, who led the faction opposed to Richard C. Kerens, shook hands with the latter amid the cheers of the whole delegation. The reconciliation was brought about in a speech by Charles G. Benton, who asked the two men to come together in the interest of harmony and for the success of the national ticket in Missouri in the coming election. Several other speeches were made and the delegation was organizd without any friction whatever. When Committeeman Kerens was unanimously re-elected every one in the room stood up and cheered. D. M. Houser was elected chairman of the delegation.

POLICE ROUND UP HOBOES

ONE OF THEM HAD INVADED A WEST END HOME.

Fines of $10 and Costs Assessed and the Gang All Went to Jail

Police Notes.

There were ten tramps in police court this morning, the police having made a general round-up of the roustabouts last Saturday evening. There has been much complaint from west end residents about the actions of gangs of tramps who congregate in the suburbs at intervals and Saturday morning one of the hoboes was bold enough to invade a house on DeGroff street and insult a housewife, whose husband was absent. The husband works in the southern part of the city and left home before 5 o'clock. The wife went to lie down with her four-months-old babe and in half an hour heard a noise in the kitchen. She went to the kitchen and near the table stood a big burly fellow, who demanded something to eat. The woman refused and the tramp threatened. She started for the bedroom and the fellow followed. The wife then turned on him and the coward backed toward the door, and when the woman threatened to call her husband he laughed and told her he had seen her husband leave with his dinner pail. The big brute then insulted the housewife by committing acts which should keep him behind prison bars forever and left the house. The wife was prostrated and the first person who knew of the affair was her husband, who returned at 1:30 p. m. He informed Superintendent Gorsline and the superintendent, with Detective Coling and Officers Heller, Blum, Lavanway and Greer, visited the west end and landed ten hoboes behind the bars. This morning Mayor Scherer sent the entire gang to jail for twenty-one days and the DeGroff street housewife will call at the jail and see if the big brute who invaded her home is in the gang.

GAMBLERS RAIDED.

Captain Whitney and Officers Rohrer and Borgman Saturday night raided the poker rooms upstairs at No. 27 Calhoun street and arrested seven poker players. They all put up forfeit and did not appear in police court. The gamekeeper paid $21 and the players $16 each.

NOTES.

An employe of the electric corporation who had a habit of riding on Pennsylvania trains from the works to the depot was arrested by Pennsylvania Captain Stoll and this morning Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $1 and costs. The sentence was suspended.

HE WAS A PIONEER MERCHANT

ALFRED D. BRANDRIFF PASSES FROM EARTH.

Died Sunday Morning at the Age of 83 Other Deaths and Funeral Notices.

Alfred D. Brandriff, who for many years was a prominent citizen of Fort Wayne, died Sunday morning at the home of his son-in-law, A. T. Lukens, on West Berry street, at the advanced age of 83 years. Mr. Brandriff was a pioneer merchant of this city, but for the past eighteen years has resided upon a large farm owned by him near Marion, Il. Some weeks ago he became ill and was brought to this city in the hope of regaining his health. Despite the efforts of skilled physicians and the tender care of loving friends, the aged man continued to decline, and for several days had been near death's door. The end which came Sunday morning had been forseen.

Mr. Brandriff was born in Cincinnati March 2, 1817, and the early years of his life were spent in that city. When a young man he went to Troy, Ohio, and established a large stove foundry, one of the first establishments of its kind in the west. In 1842 he was married to Miss Mary A. Roberts, of Dayton, Ohio, who died in this city in 1863. To this union were born two children—Mrs. Martha Hanna and Mrs. A. T. Lukens, both of whom reside in this city.

In 1851 Mr. Brandriff came to Fort Wayne from Troy, making the journey on horseback, which was the only mode of travel available at that time. His family followed a year later. Mr. Brandriff established a hardware and stove store in Fort Wayne, and out of it grew the large wholesale and retail hardware house of A. D. Brandriff & Co., which was for many years one of the largest and best known in northern Indiana. He was formerly a director of the First National bank, and was one of the incorporators of Lindenwood cemetery. Mr. Brandriff retired from active business in 1885.

In 1866 he was united in marriage to Martha Crane Taylor, of Collinville, Conn., who still survives. For nearly fifty years Mr. Brandriff was a devoted member of the First Presbyterian church and throughout his life he exemplified the highest type of citizenship.

Besides the wife and daughters mentioned above there are nine grandchildren surviving—Alfred B. Lukens, of New York; John L. Hanna, of the Pennsylvania offices; Mrs. Frederick Reusch, (formerly Marguerite Hanna) of Petoskey, Mich.; Edward Lukens, Mary Hanna and Clara, Grace, Lydia and Martha Lukens, of this city.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of A. T. Lukens, 236 West Berry street, at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to the services. The interment will be private. Rev. D. W. Moffat will conduct the funeral services.

KRETSINGER.

Henry R. Kretsinger, who has been a patient at St. Joseph's hospital for some time, died Sunday night at the age of 76 years. Mr. Kretsinger was born in Hardie county, W. Va., November 21, 1824, and many years ago conducted a drug store at Lagro. Later he resided at Kalamazoo and removed to Fort Wayne in 1883. For a time he was engaged in the sale of territory for a patent, and afterwards entered the real estate business.

Surviving him are two sons, John Kretsinger, who is foreman of the Pittsburg planing mills, and Constantine Kretsinger, who is a machinist at Kalamazoo. He also leaves a widow and one step-daughter, Mrs. Charles Trisket, of West Washington street.

The remains were removed to the home of his son, John Kretsinger, No. 17 Miner street.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

NEUENSCHWANDER.

Miss Tillie Neuenschwander, who was for several years a clerk in the DeWald dry goods house, died Sunday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Neuenschwander, 75 Columbia avenue, after a protracted illness from consumption. She was taken ill in October last and in the extended week of suffering had been patient and resigned. Miss Neuenschwander was 38 years of age and a devoted member of Grace Reformed church. The surviving brothers and sisters are Mrs. William Henderson, of this city; Albert Neuenschwander, of Ashland Wis., and R. C. Neuenschwander, of St. Paul, Minn.

The funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. K. Zartman officiating.

MARQUARDT.

Philip Marquardt, a prominent farmer of Madison township, died on Friday from consumption, at the age of 60 years. Mr. Marquardt had but recently returned from the west, where he went in the hope of benefiting his health.

SIMONS.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simons, of 156 Wallace street, died on Saturday from exhaustion. The remains were interred at Lindenwood.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

London, June 18.—A belated dispatch from Lord Roberts, sent from Pretoria under date of June 16, gives an official version of an attack on a British post at Zand river, June 16, by 800 Boers, with three guns. It says that General Knox, with a mixed force, drove off the Boers, who left four dead and four prisoners on the field. The British loss was Major Seymour and two men killed and nine wounded.

A rumor at Cape Town that Lord Roberts is about to seize the Delagoa Bay railroad at a strong strategic point, and the announcement of the completion of the new Cape cabinet constitute the only other news from South Africa today.

A REACTION NOTICEABLE.

Elkhart, Ind., June 16. Dr. Thomas Montgomery, a colored practitioner, whose license lapsed while he was imprisoned at Michigan City for criminal malpractice, and who was indicted after returning home for resuming the practice of his profession, is finding a difficult road to travel because of repeated prosecutions instigated by Dr. Charles H. Niman, of this city. The first indictment was quashed. Dr. Montgomery was then rearrested on an affidavit and information, and that document was quashed. Yesterday Dr. Niman went to Goshen, and a warrant was issued by a justice of the peace on the same old charge. The case has been continued until Monday, Dr. Montgomery depositing cash bail. Heretofore the people have taken little interest in the matter, but the last arrest has caused a reaction in the colored man's favor, and has strengthened him in this community.

Frank Belot, the popular county clerk, this afternoon issued a marriage license to himself to wed Miss Matilda Reilly. Mr. Belot has issued many a marriage license during his term of service, but this particular one contains more of interest to him than any he has previously handed out. The wedding will take place at the Cathedral tomorrow morning, Rev. Father O'Reilly officiating.

HE WILL RESIGN.

PROF. C. T. LANE TO PASS THE SUPERINTENDENCY.

STUDY TO BE REAPPOINTED

THE SCHOOL BOARD WILL TAKE ACTION TONIGHT.

A VEXED SITUATION SOLVED

PROFESSOR LANE WILL CONTINUE IN HIGH SCHOOL.

Prof. C. T. Lane, who was appointed superintendent of the Fort Wayne public schools to succeed Prof. J. N. Study, has tendered his resignation to the board of school trustees. The board will meet tonight to take action upon the matter. The program will be to accept Professor Lane's resignation, re-appoint Superintendent Study and then restore Professor Lane to his position as principal of the Fort Wayne high school.

This program has been made possible by the generous action of Professor Lane in relinquishing the superintendency in order that the distressing agitation which followed and has continued since the ousting of Professor Study may be stopped, and the evil being so wrought to to the public schools may meet a sudden quietus.

Superintendent Study will be reappointed at his former salary of $3,000 a year, the majority of the board taking the position that as there was no cause demanding his removal his services are worth to the public schools what he has been receiving for the past three years.

While it has been suspected that Professor Lane would rise to the paramount occasion definite announcement of it is today made public for the first time. Public sentiment has been so unanimous that Superintendent Study should never have been removed that it has been plain no action would be satisfactory save the reappointment of Mr. Study, since reorganization of the board made it possible, contingent upon Mr. Lane's resigning.

Professor Lane's high-minded and conspicuously unselfish action is certain to evoke a universal expression of approval of his course and praise of his manliness.

Judge Baker and the other officers of the United States court will arrive from Indianapolis this evening and the federal court will convene in this city tomorrow. A patent suit is first upon the docket and already many models have been placed in the court room for reference during the trial, in which the Peerless Dental Cuspidor company, of this city, seeks to prevent the use of an apparatus which they claim is an infringement upon their product.

PASSENGERS PROTECTED.

Needles, Cal., June 18. The federal quarantine inspector has been prevented from molesting passengers on Santa Fe trains at the state line and his authority is ignored by the railroad officials. Orders have been issued to all conductors to take up the pass of the inspector, Mr. Jenkins, if presented, and collect his fare. Jenkins has wired to Surgeon Kinyon for instructions. The conductors have also been ordered to give the inspector no information.

WHEAT SCORES AN ADVANCE.

Chicago, June 18.—Wheat scored a sensational advance today. July option sold at the opening on the board of trade at 75¾c to 75⅞c, and under an enormous demand steadily advanced in price till a sale was made at 79¼c, 4⅛@4¼c higher than the last sale of Saturday's trade. The advance was caused by reports alleging the almost total failure of the spring wheat crop in the Dakotas and Minnesota. These states are the greatest spring wheat growing sections in the country and the failure this season is said to be the worst in many years. A local expert who has been investigating the damage wrought today reported that the three states could not raise 100,000,000 bushels of wheat, a decrease from last year's yield of 120,000,000 bushels. Men who had bought wheat weeks, and even days, ago at a lower figure today took out moderate fortunes in profits. The close was at 78¾@78⅞c for July.

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE

What Becomes of the Patient?

Doctors have their hobbies as well as other people and in the treatment of disease often carry them too far for the patient's good. For instance, in the treatment of indigestion or dyspepsia many doctors give bismuth and nothing else; others rely on pepsin to bring their patients through; still another doctor treats stomach troubles with the various vegetable essences and fruit salts.

Now one or the other of these excellent remedies becoms a hobby with th doctor who has had most success with the particular one in question, because all of them are first-class remedies for indigestion and dyspepsia, but not one of them alone is so good as a combination of all of them, such as is found in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which contains not only vegetable essences and fruit salts, but also the freshest, purest pepsin and bismuth, making altogether a remedy unsurpassed for every form of indigestion, sour stomach, nervous dyspepsia, belching of gas, distress after eating, sleeplessness, headaches, etc.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is not a secret patent nostrum, but you can see for yourself what it is and knowing this, its success as a dyspepsia cure is not surprising. All druggists recommend them and sell them at 50 cents.

READERS OF THE SENTINEL WHEN TAKING THEIR SUMMER VACATIONS, CAN HAVE THE PAPER SENT TO THEM FOR TEN CENTS A WEEK. THE ADDRESS WILL BE CHANGD AS OFTEN AS DESIRED

Never has there been such a furor over the tail to a kite.

This time it seems to be the rough rider himself who is ridden down and lariated.

Hon. Marcus Hanna does not appear to be so much of a dissolving view as some of his amiable friends had hoped.

The weakness of the platform of the Allen county republicans is that it doth protest too much. In scope it more than covers the reasonable demand of a national declaration.

The one man who is probably able to check the Roosevelt boom is President McKinley and just how he can turn the trick with both grace and safety is what puzzles the Hanna men. The demand for the tough rider must be met to be placated.

There is no great comfort for democrats in the republican tangle over the vice presidential nomination. The democrats are themselves confronted by a similar problem. The nomination of Mr. Bryan is as certain as the nomination of Mr. McKinley. The finding of the right man to properly strengthen and balance the ticket has not yet been found and it doubtless will not be until the Kansas City convention has taken up the job.

While we are taking "up the white man's burden" in this land let us not overlook that package of it that lies at our feet. Sixteen thousand Pima and Papago Indians on the Gila reservation are destitute and on the verge of starvation. While these are not dead Indians, they are nevertheless good Indians, and if something is not shortly accomplished for their relief they will see long fulfill Gen. al Sheridan's definition of a good Indian. Two months ago the condition of these wards of the nation was called sharply to the attention of the government, but nothing has been done for them worthy the conscience of a great nation like this. The white man, whose burden the red man is, has diverted the streams which watered the reservation to other areas and there has been failure of the Indians' crop and consequent famine. It is a disgrace to the United States that these helpless Indians should be in destitution.

The criticism of Hon. George W. Louttit by the republican county platform concerning the justice of the peace bill strikes us as being the climax of puerility. The republican majority in the legislature had it in its power to amend Mr. Louttit's bill to make it at once effective, but did not appear interested in the measure beyond passing it as hundreds of other bills are passed, merely because it was introduced and no strong party objection raised to it. Mr. Louttit deserves credit for the bill. If it will correct any of the abuses in the justices' courts then the end of those abuses can at least be seen, even as far away as 1902. And that is much more than there has ever been any evidence would be the case if Mr. Louttit had not successfully managed to get his measure through.

GOOD TICKET NAMED.

The nomination of a republican ticket in Allen county is largely perfunctory party matter, confronted as the party is by a practically hopeless adverse majority. For that reason it is not always an easy task to induce the party's best men to enter a hopeless race for county office. We are glad to observe, therefore, that in the performance of its work Saturday the Allen county republicans placed in nomination a strong, clean ticket. The men who compose it are honorable, trustworthy and capable. They will command the unhesitating support of the voters of the republican party. In this the republicans take note of the only chance they can hope to have of ever electing a candidate to office in this democratic county. To name good men for office is to invite the confidence of the people. A political party can give no other hostage for its conduct save the character of the men it chooses to sustain the relation between partisan organization and the public service. Bad men in control of one party inevitably begets vicious leadership in the opposition. Just as true is the converse of this proposition. The political party that commits its leadership to and imposes its honor in high-minded and worthy men forces its competitor organization to rise to the same level of political conscience. The republicans of Allen county have done well. They may not, probably will not elect any of their ticket, but their good work of Saturday will bear good fruit for them and for the public.

STRIKE GOES ON.

ST LOUIS TRACTION WAR IS TO BE FINISH FIGHT.

THE DISORDER IS SUBSIDING

ONLY SPORADIC ACTS OF VIOLENCE OCCUR.

STATEMENT BY THE SHERIFF

BELIEVES SPECIAL DEPUTIES ARE NOT NOW NEEDED.

St. Louis, June 18.—There being no immediate prospect of an honorable settlement of the street railway strike, the situation has become more strained than ever. The Transit officials say that as far as they are concerned the strike is over, while the men, backed by the Federation of Labor, declare they will fight to the bitter end.

Despite the large number of attempts made yesterday to blow up street cars, Sheriff Dahlman is of the opinion that the force of special deputies is no longer needed and that the police are sufficient for protection purposes. He has sent the following communication to President Hawes, of the police board on the subject:

"All reports made to me by the members of the posse confirm my own impression that a very radical change has taken place in the condition of our city. The immediate parties to the controversy may be as far apart as ever and the general public seems determined to give effective expression to its sympathy in the conflict, but it cannot be said that violence on a large scale is now resorted to. The offenses reported are not the result of concerted action, but are of a character to call for the usual police control. I venture to suggest, therefore, that, in view of this changed situation, the retirement of the posse ought to be considered—if not the discharge, at least the withdrawal. While it is true that the use of power is sometimes necessary to restore peace, it is equally true that the unnecessary display of power is not best calculated to maintain that peace. I suggest that it would be well to test the question whether or not this community is now ready to exercise its usual self-control and in all respects to express and to assert its position within the recognized limits of the law of the land.

"John H. Dahlman, Sheriff."

Examination of witnesses by Coroner Lloyd to establish the responsibility for the shooting of three strikers on Sunday, June 10, was resumed today.

CASE IS SETTLED.

KNIGHTS WENT TO TOLEDO

Seventy-one Knights of Columbus went to Toledo yesterday and participated in the initiation of 140 new members to the Toledo lodge. The party went to the Lake City on the early morning excursion train, but stayed over to the banquet in the evening and returned to Fort Wayne on a special, which left Toledo at 1 o'clock and made the run to Fort Wayne in two hours.

REPLIES TO MR. LOUTTIT.

Editor of The Sentinel: Mr. Louttit, in this morning's Journal-Gazette, attempts to be slippery. The republican county platform did not censure him for not ousting the incumbent justices of the peace, who are constitutional officers having four years to serve (from 1898), and neither Mr. Louttit nor the legislature could remove them. But the statute was framed and passed under Mr. Louttit's direction, and being a local bill, the republican legislature by the prevailing and time-honored rule, permitted him to set the date for its taking effect. There is nothing in the constitution preventing the legislature from changing the form of compensation of justices of the peace, and since all the evils complained of are due to the fee system, the terms of Mr. Louttit's bill are responsible for the continuance of these evils four years longer than necessary. The demand of the republican convention is for a law putting the justices on a salary basis, paying the four incumbents a stated salary. Mr. Louttit's bill provides for two justices after 1902 on a salary of $1,000 a year. These may or may not be enough. That is not the point. The conditions demand the removal of the corruption and extortion so often practiced in enforcing penalties for trivial offenses, unjust findings of guilty for sake of fees and unwarranted arrests for revenue only. These abuses might have been ended in 1899. By the Louttit bill their continuance is assured until 1902.

NATIONALISTS ARE VICTORS

RODRIGUEZ ELECTED MAYOR OF HAVANA.

The Cuban Elections Passed Off Very Quiet and Not a Shot Was Fired in the Island.

Havana, June 18. General Alejandro Rodriguez, nationalist, was Saturday elected mayor of Havana, polling 13,673 votes, against 6,034 cast for Senor Estrada Mora, independent. The total vote fell about 3,500 below the registration.

The national party elected its entire ticket, eighteen councilmen, the treasurer, one correctional judge and three municipal judges. The other correctional judgship fell to an independent candidate, as did also the fourth municipal judgeship. Of the six other councilmen, four are republicans and two nationalists, who ran independently.

Reports from all parts of the island go to show that perfect order prevailed at the polls. Not a shot was fired, nor was there any sign of disturbance anywhere.

To an American observer of an election here it seemed as if the people regarded the whole matter with absolute indifference. There was not even a crowd in waiting to hear the result declared. Not a cheer was raised, nor were there any of the ordinary indications of election excitement, although a demonstration in honor of the successful candidate took place tonight.

The victory of the nationalists is chiefly due to the fact that they were first in the field, and had the benefit of a well-disciplined organization. But, as they only claimed to have about 16,000 members, it is obvious that a large proportion of the voting population of Havana, perhaps 30,000 was not attracted [illegible] ks of the party during [illegible] and a half prior to the election. This is chiefly the result of a lack of confidence in the party leaders.

FIGURES WILL BE DELAYED

NO CENSUS BULLETINS FOR SEVERAL WEEKS.

Only News Will Be Given Out Through Official Bulletins—Restraint on Enumerators.

Washington, June 18.—Director Merriam, of the census bureau, said today that the results of the work of the enumerators could not be known for at least two weeks and it might be a month before the first bulletin is issued. He stated positively that the only news in regard to the count would be made public through bulletins issued at the census office. The enumerators are strictly forbidden by law to give out information of any kind in regard to their work and if they violate this law they will be heavily fined. The director said that in view of this condition any figures presented as the work of the enumerators other than those contained in the bulletins of the census office would be mere speculation and could be of no value. The count of the population in the large cities is practically completed and about 15,000 enumeration districts have been reported as finished. The number of cards received from enumerators up to date is about 80,000. It will require at least five days to check up the work of the enumerators in order to ascertain the payments due them. This will be done in the various cities. When this is finished the cards will be forwarded to Washington, where the actual tabulation of returns will be begun. It is probable that Washington, D. C., will be the first city whose population will be announced and following this probably will come Cincinnati, O. Director Merriam said today that the work was progressing very satisfactorily and that there had been only a few hitches of minor importance.

IS CALLED HIGHER

W. E. HUNTER QUITS WAYNE OIL TANK COMPANY

TO TAKE A BETTER POSITION

BECOMES MANAGER OF A LARGE MANUFACTORY.

NEWS OF THE RAIL AND SHOP

BIG EXCURSIONS IN AND OUT OF FORT WAYNE.

W. E. Hunter, secretary and treasurer of the Wayne Oil Tank company, has tendered to the company his resignation. He has been offered and has accepted the position of manager of a large manufacturing establishment in Chicago and will assume the duties of that office as soon as he can close up his affairs here, which will be about the first of next week. Mr. Hunter is one of Fort Wayne's brightest young business men and the citizens generally will regret his removal from the city. He was one of the organizers of the Wayne Oil Tank company, whose business he has so successfully managed for nine years, and he goes to his new position under very flattering prospects.

IN HIS OLD PLACE.

James A. Ludington is again a familiar figure in the Pittsburg machine shop, where he worked for so many years. Before he met with the accident which cost him the loss of an arm, Mr. Ludington was one of the best workmen in the machine room and his earnings were larger than many of his shopmates because of the rapidity with which he turned out work. He will look after matters in the labor department, such as keeping everything in its place so that it may be found on a moment's notice when needed. The loss of his arm makes working at his trade impossible. During the jollification demonstration over the election of President McKinley, Mr. Ludington had some fingers blown off by the premature explosion of a little cannon he was firing. The other portions of the hand were also injured so badly that amputation above the wrist was necessary.

HAD A HAND INJURED.

Fireman F. B. Burke, of the Pittsburg, had one of his hands so badly injured Saturday evening that a portion of the member had to be amputated. While handling the push pole in shiftig a car at Dunkirk, the hand was caught in some manner with the foregoing result. He was brought here on train No. 9 and taken to his home, where he is now under the care of Dr. G. C. Stemen.

'TWAS A JOLLY CROWD.

Yesterday the Fort Wayne Turnverein had an excursion to Hillsdale, Mich. The crowd was disappointing in a numerical sense, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in jollity and never did an excursion party have a better time. There were 327 tickets sold here.

BIG EXCURSION CROWD.

The Lake Erie and Western road brought 800 people into the city yesterday. About 500 came in with the Indianapolis excursion party on a special train and the balance were picked up by the regular train along the line. This is the second big crowd the Lake Erie and Western has brought to Fort Wayne this season and in that line of business it is far ahead of any other line entering the city.

CONVENTION BUSINESS.

While the republican convention travel was immense only a small portion of it came this way. The Pennsylvania company had four special trains and its regular trains were larger than usual, and the Nickel Plate trains were well filled with delegates, but that company was not called upon to run specials on this account. Most of the business out of Chicago was routed over the differential lines, the Wabash and the Michigan Southern getting the bulk of the travel. Yesterday the Wabash had three heavy special trains over its Canadian branch loaded with western delegates and for several days every regular train has been loaded with delegates. The Pennsylvania sold seventy-five tickets at this point.

LOSE THEIR IDENTITY.

Pittsburg engines 415 and 318, for several years engaged in the freight traffic on one of the eastern divisions, have entirely lost their identity. In their place are two magnificently painted locomotives bearing the name Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad, and the numbers 32 and 31, respectively. These locomotives are too light for service on the Pennsylvania lines and were too good to be consigned to the scrap heap, so the company sold them to the Choctaw, Oklahoma, and Gulf company, repaired and repainted them until they now have the appearance of brand new engines and doubtless they are just as good. They were turned out of the shops today and after being tested will leave in a day or two for their new field of labor.

THE TOLEDO CROWD.

The Wabash company yesterday brought down from the north 361 excursionists, who spent the day at Robison park and had a good time generally. The train consisted of a baggage car and nine coaches and it was in charge of Conductor Thornburg and Engineer Nall.

IN HIS NEW OFFICE.

Agent Kirkland and his staff are now pleasantly located in the remodeled freight house offices, the move to the new quarters having been effected yesterday. Mr. Kirkland, Cashier J. J. McCracken and their assistants occupy two pleasant rooms north of the hall on the second floor, while the clerks occupy a commodious and pleasant room south of the hall on the same floor. The offices down stairs are occupied by Freight House Foreman Davis and his clerks, Ticket Receiver J. C. M. Baker, the yardmasters, and the conductors. Dr. E. F. Wagner and Captain H. Stoll, who were in cramped quarters during the presence of the freight department clerks in the depot building, are preparing to resume their former offices.

A STAFF MEETING.

Supt. J. B. McKim, of the Pittsburg, and his staff of officers held a conference today to discuss matters pertaining to the transportation department of the road. The "staff committee" includes the heads of the several departments, included being Trainmaster J. F. Patterson, Road Foreman of Engineers C. F. Colmey and Chief Dispatcher W. H. Tiger.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

C. Weideman and C. J. Kruger, car builders at the east shops, are on the sick list.

Switchman W. T. Bartley, of the Pittsburg, and his wife were the guests of friends at Rome City yesterday.

Engineer J. L. Gebert and Fireman T. F. Haley, of the Pittsburg, are taking a lay off to attend to private affairs.

Machinist Charles Bott resumed his duties in the electric works this morning, after a week's absence on account of sickness.

M. and J. Polsin, employes of the Pittsburg round house, failed to report for duty this morning and it is supposed they are sick.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana carried 253 Fort Wayne people to Rome City yesterday and the Wabash carried 207 to Toledo.

Officer Ernest Paul is again on the south depot "beat," having relieved Officer William F. Knock, who is enjoying a ten days' vacation.

J. G. Reiber, who operates the wheel press in the Pittsburg car machine shop, resumed work this morning after an illness of a few days.

Dr. E. F. Wagner, medical examiner of the Pennsylvania Relief department, left for Cleveland this afternoon. He will return Wednesday.

Frank Bennett, checkman at the Wabash freight office, has been unable to work for several days on account of the serious illness of his wife.

Wabash engine 134 has taken the place of engine 556 in the local freight service and the latter will come into the shops for general repairs.

Grotholtman & Co., contractors, have commenced the erection of a dwelling house on Maple avenue for William Hill, machinist in the Bass works.

Yard Engineer Harry Kelker, of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of sickness in his family, and Engineer P. Vanalstein has charge of the engine.

Night Yardmaster Alf. Raifsnyder, of the Pittsburg, reported for duty yesterday. Mr. Raifsnyder had the misfortune to lose his wife a few weeks ago.

Engine 1313, just out of the Wabash shops after receiving general repairs, left double-header on train No. 69 this morning. It will go to the Buffalo division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tierney will leave this evening for New York, where they will visit three weeks. Mr. Tierney is a machinist and is employed in the Pittsburg shops.

S. M. Brophy, of Roanoke, Va., has been appointed to the position of superintendent of the Altoona, Clearfield and Northern railway, with headquarters in Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Louis Vallieu, of 160 Fairfield avenue, wife of the Wabash shopman, was surprised by a lot of her friends last evening. The visitors called to celebrate Mrs. Vallieu's birthday and they did it in a fashion that will make the day ever memorable to their hostess.

One day last week 5,300 loaded cars passed through Lewiston Junction, on the Pennsylvania lines. This is said to be unusual freight business even for the busiest season of the year.

The Wabash has more engines than it can use and will "white lead" some of them. No. 187 was served in this manner and is now in the round house in this city awaiting a revival of business.

Charlie Porter, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Porter, who is taking a polytechnical course in Purdue college, has entered the Bass machine shop to work during the college vacation term.

M. G. Adams, of the Pittsburg lumber yards, is taking a lay-off on account of a slightly injured foot. F. Scheifersten, of the same department, is off duty to attend to some private business.

George Knoll has resumed his duties in the metre department of the electric works, after an absence on account of an increase in his family. He distributed cigars among the shopmen this morning.

Charles Szink, a painter in the Pittsburg shops, left yesterday for Pennsylvania, where he will visit relatives two or three weeks. He will also attend the republican convention in Philadelphia.

Clem Reid, the machinist who was formerly employed in the Bass shops, left today for Wyandot, Mich., his present home. He had been spending two weeks with his parents and brothers in this city.

A train loaded with paper machinery from Minneapolis, destined for Shanghai, China, passed through the city yesterday over the Nickel Plate. There were eight cars in the train and it ran upon a passenger schedule.

John Scully, the veteran watchman at the entrance to the Pittsburg round house, reported for duty this morning. He was ill a month, a portion of the time so bad that his friends feared he was not going to recover.

The Pennsylvania trainmen were grieved to learn of the misfortune that has come to Conductor C. D. Taylor, who has a run between this city and Chicago and resides in the latter. His wife died there last Saturday, after a long and painful sickness.

Henry Danmeyer, who had his back hurt; Fred Engelking, who had a finger mashed a short time ago, and Fred Lenz and John Rupp, who had been suffering from attacks of rheumatism, resumed their respective places in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning.

Claim Agent J. H. Swegman, of the Pennsylvania, is taking a two or three weeks' vacation, during which he will be married Wednesday morning, as stated in The Sentinel. During Mr. Swegman's absence the duties of claim agent will be performed by Attorney Fred Zollars.

William Hayes, switchman in the Pennsylvania yards, has been granted a two weeks' leave of absence, which he will spend with relatives and friends in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. During Mr. Hayes' absence his place in the yard service will be filled by Switchman George Sunderland.

Herman Regel, of the construction department of the Bass works, is in the city to visit his family, who reside at 168 Hanna street. Mr. Regel was absent from the city one year and three days, setting up machinery in New York and Massachusetts. He will probably go elsewhere upon a similar mission in a few days.

R. J. Fisher left this morning for Saratoga, where he will lecture on the subject "The Superiority of the Bass Car Wheel." The master car builders will hold their annual convention at that place this week. Mr. Fisher will deliver his lecture in small and original packages and will come home with a lot of orders as a result.

R. D. Evans, clerk in the office of Rhinesmith & Simonson, arrived home yesterday morning, accompanied by his bride. They have arranged to go to housekeeping on East Washington street. As the reader of The Sentinel will doubtless remember, Mr. and Mrs. Evans were married in Buffalo, N. Y., two or three weeks ago.

Concerning a former Fort Wayne citizen and one who ranked high in the estimation of his friends the North Manchester Rays of Light of recent date says: "N. B. Whitsell, formerly of the Wabash, who holds a position as traveling engineer on the Grand Trunk railway, was in the city Tuesday, called to Ijamsville, by the arrival of a fine girl baby at his home there. Although employed in the queen's dominion, Mr. Whitsell's family live at Ijamsville."

REV. H. N. SMITH RESIGNS.

Rev. H. N. Smith, pastor of Heidelberg Reformed church, tendered his resignation of the charge after the morning service on Sunday. The announcement came as a great surprise to a majority of the congregation but a few of whom knew of the intention of Mr. Smith to resign. Rev. Smith has been called to the pastorate of a thriving church in Culver, Ind., and will assume charge of the new field about July 1. To a Sentinel reporter Rev. Smith stated that although he had always received the best of treatment and had been on the best of terms with every member of the church, he felt that it would be best for him to resign. The news of his intended departure from the city will be received with regret by his many friends.

WILL ERECT A HOSPITAL.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of Concordia college it was decided to build a hospital in connection with that institution, and Architect J. M. E. Reidel was instructed to prepare plans for the new structure. The drawings are about completed and tomorrow evening the board will meet in Mr. Reidel's office to view the plans. The hospital building will be of brick and will contain about ten rooms. It will be two stories in height and be separate from the other college buildings. Plans are also being prepared for a new lavatory for the college. The construction of the new buildings will be commenced as soon as possible.

IT KILLS CATTLE

Science is up the stump. She can't find out why green sorghum should be so quickly fatal to cattle.

Sorghum is rapidly coming into favor as a forage crop. Owing to the large yields obtainable and to its high feeding value stockmen are beginning to depend upon this crop for fodder and roughage. But fatalities in herds pastured on the growing cane are frequently reported. With the increased use of this crop for forage there has followed an increase in the number of fatal cases. Cases are recorded of cattle dying within five minutes after entering a sorghum pasture. The true reason for this fatal effect is not known, but many stockmen believe it may be found in the presence on the leaves of the cane of poisonous fungi. One Nebraska farmer was driving his cow across a small strip of cane and before the animal had gone more than a few rods she dropped and in a few minutes she was dead. Another cow that was killed by green sorghum had eaten only one stalk, apparently, and that was still in her throat.

The Nebraska agricultural experiment station has analyzed stalks of green sorghum that, being partly eaten by cattle, had killed them. It found none of the common known vegetable poisons excepting a small quantity of oxalic acid that could not be fatal.

THE RAVAGES OF A TERRIBLE CURSE

SCROFULA is in almost every case traceable to some hereditary blood taint, "The sin of the parent visited upon the child." It is a terrible curse, whose ravages, unless arrested, lead to most distressing results in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, offensive sores, abscesses, consumption and premature death.

S. S. S. IS THE ONLY CURE FOR SCROFULA

It strikes at the very root of the disease, forces out the poison, purifies and enriches the blood, tones up the system, restores strength.

Mrs. Ruth Berkeley, Salina, Kansas, says: "Scrofula appeared on my grandchild's head and spread rapidly all over her body. The scales on the sores would peel off, emitting a sickening odor. The disease next attacked her eyes, and we feared she would lose them. We gave her S. S. S., which at once made a permanent cure."
